

---

School Districts

Posted by Community Business Owner - 2008/06/02 13:55

---

The perception of the schools districts is the reason our property values are falling, and there is flight from our area. While they advertise high test scores, they should be aware that the safety and security of our children is equally important. The realtors divert buyers from this area because of the schools.

=====